

STATE PERSONNEL TRAINING

January – March 2013

Listed below are dates of classes being offered, free of charge, in the months of January – March. Classes are open to all state employees.

NOTE: The training division develops schedules based on the needs of agencies as evidenced by waiting lists created when classes are full. If you do not see a class you need, please email us with the topic, location, and number of spaces for the training you desire.

CLASSES

State Government Orientation: Personnel - MONTGOMERY January 8, 2013 at SPD Meeting Room 319

Registration for full day classes: 8:00 a.m. to 8:30 a.m. with classes beginning at 8:30 a.m. and ending at 4:00 p.m.

Course Description: This orientation course is for new employees who are within their first two years of employment in the merit system. It is also recommended for any employee who has not had a course that covers the material described herein. The content addresses a comprehensive study of the history of the merit system and focuses on the responsibility of state government to provide outstanding customer service to the taxpayers. Subjects include the purpose of the merit system, personnel pay and leave, responsibilities of state employees, due process, and the level of performance expected of all employees. The functions and procedures of the State Personnel Department are examined, and employee questions are answered regarding classification, pay, examination, certification, and hiring. Additionally, the performance appraisal and discipline system are explained.

State Government Orientation: Employee Benefits - MONTGOMERY January 9, 2013 at SPD Meeting Room 319

Registration for full day classes: 8:00 a.m. to 8:30 a.m. with classes beginning at 8:30 a.m. and ending at 4:00 p.m.

Course Description: Employee Benefits of State Government Orientation will include presentations from representatives of host agencies on the major employment benefit packages of their respective departments. Benefits addressed include risk management services, employee insurance, wellness programs for state employees, flexible benefits/dependent health care programs, retirement services, RSA 1 program, State Credit Union, and State Parks. This class is for all state employees but is especially designed for new employees within the first two years of employment. Regardless of years of service, attendees will enjoy learning about the benefits offered by state employment.

Dealing With Difficult People – MONTGOMERY

January 15, 2013 at SPD Meeting Room 319

Registration for this class: 8:00 a.m. to 8:30 a.m. with class beginning at 8:30 a.m. and ending at 4:00 p.m.

Course Description: This one-day course provides individuals with techniques for interacting with individuals with challenging personalities and challenging behaviors. It is not about changing other people, but about changing how we respond to them in order to work together effectively. Although the course is open to all employees, it is ideal for individuals whose jobs involve frequent contact with the public or frequent contact with other employees. The curriculum emphasizes effective communications under stressful circumstances. Topics presented include understanding abrasive behavior, managing workplace conflicts, working with difficult personalities, and working with difficult behaviors.

Performance Appraisal for Supervisors - MONTGOMERY

January 23, 2013 at SPD Meeting Room 319

Registration for full day classes: 8:00 a.m. to 8:30 a.m. with classes beginning at 8:30 a.m. and ending at 4:00 p.m.

Course Description: The one-day appraisal course is recommended for supervisors and managers, who are or will be supervising personnel in state government. The program offers a comprehensive look at the procedures necessary to conduct employee evaluations with correct techniques and in a legally defensible manner. Participants will learn the supervisory responsibilities of Preappraisal, Midappraisal, and Final Appraisal periods and how to complete the three forms associated with this management process. In addition, writing responsibilities and results, evaluating the level of employee performance, and rating/scoring employee performance will be explained. Exercises will allow participants to use the new skills learned in the program.

Progressive Discipline - MONTGOMERY

January 24, 2013 at SPD Meeting Room 319

Registration for full day classes: 8:00 a.m. to 8:30 a.m. with classes beginning at 8:30 a.m. and ending at 4:00 p.m.

Course Description: The discipline course is recommended for supervisors and managers, who are or will be supervising personnel in state government. The program offers a comprehensive look at the procedures necessary to conduct employee discipline with correct techniques and in a legally defensible manner. A participant can learn the disciplinary procedures for the steps of warning, reprimand, suspension, and termination. Any updates in the process are emphasized. Skills taught include the ability to coach and counsel employees through feedback, intervention, documentation, and action plan, as well as the use of steps and due process when conducting a disciplinary action. State law and State Personnel Board Rules, as they refer to the discipline process, are discussed in detail. Case studies are conducted to allow participants to utilize the new skills learned in the program.

Train the Trainer: The Basics – MONTGOMERY

January 29 - 30 and February 5 - 6, 2013 at SPD Meeting Room 319

Registration for full day classes: 8:00 a.m. to 8:30 a.m. with classes beginning at 8:30 a.m. and ending at 4:00 p.m.

Class is limited to 20 people; once full, a waiting list will be established in case of cancellations.

Please note that this four-day course is conducted in two parts consisting of two days each with homework. Participants must attend all four classes to receive certificate.

Course Description: This four-day course provides individuals with techniques for designing, developing, conducting, and evaluating training programs regardless of the subject. Although it is open to all individuals who make presentations before groups, it is ideally suited for individuals who conduct training classes for state employees. The curriculum emphasizes techniques for creating a stimulating learning experience for adults. Topics include assessing employee needs, developing course curriculum, selecting presentation methodology, designing visual aids, conducting training programs, managing group dynamics, and evaluating training effectiveness. Participants make several presentations during the course to practice new skills in a learning environment that provides constructive feedback.

Dealing With Difficult People – MONTGOMERY

Family and Medical Leave Act – MONTGOMERY

February 28, 2013 at SPD Meeting Room 319

Notice: Morning Program Schedule is 9:30 am – 11:30 am

Registration for this morning class: 9:00 a.m. to 9:30 a.m. with classes beginning at 9:30 a.m. and ending at 11:30 a.m. Supervisors and employees will attend the first session. Employees with no supervisory duties will be dismissed after the first session and supervisors only will reconvene to discuss specific responsibilities for handling employee FMLA requests.

In 1993, the Family and Medical Leave Act became a federal law. State Personnel policies encompass new issues and new case law regarding FMLA. This program will cover the eligibility requirements for leave under the law, the types of leave, the qualifying illnesses, and necessary documentation. Other areas of discussion will include retaliatory actions under the law, employee, as well as employer, rights and obligations. Procedures for initiating, implementing, and monitoring FMLA leave will also be covered. The new regulations for FMLA will be discussed. This class is highly suggested for ANY person who is currently a state employee in ANY position if the agency is eligible for FMLA.

Sexual Harassment Prevention - MONTGOMERY

February 28, 2013 at SPD Meeting Room 319

Notice: Afternoon Program Schedule 1:00 pm – 3:30 pm

Registration for afternoon class: 12:30 p.m. to 1:00 p.m. with classes beginning at 1:00 p.m. and ending at 3:30 p.m.

Course Description: Most people can recognize blatant sexual harassment. However, the boundaries are less clear when friendly flirtation and “shoptalk” occurs. Attendees will examine sexual harassment scenarios and determine the depth of the alleged violation. The participants will examine recent changes in rulings and what affect it might have on management responsibilities. Participants will learn how to identify, initially investigate, report, and respond properly to a sexual harassment accusation. The course will teach how the response of the employer to a sexual harassment claim can potentially increase or decrease the organization’s liability. This class is suggested for ANY person who is currently a state employee in ANY position.

Employment Law for Supervisors - MONTGOMERY

March 7, 2013 at SPD Meeting Room 319

NOTE: This course is now a four hour program.

Registration for half day classes: 8:00 a.m. to 8:30 a.m. with classes beginning at 8:30 a.m. and ending at 12:30 p.m.

Course Description: This class is highly suggested for ANY person who is or will be supervising personnel in state government. The participants will get a detailed study of federal employment laws that will cross their paths in today’s workplace. Laws discussed will be the Civil Rights Act of 1964 and 1991, the Americans with Disabilities Act, the Age Discrimination in Employment Act, and the Pregnancy Discrimination Act. Case studies will be conducted for the participants to put their newfound knowledge to work in simulated situations.

Time Management – MONTGOMERY

March 19, 2013 at SPD Meeting Room 319

NOTE: This course is a four hour midday program.

Registration for four hour classes: 9:30 a.m. to 10:00 a.m. with classes beginning at 10:00 a.m. and ending at 3:00 p.m.

Course Description: This course provides individuals with techniques for making the most of the limited amount of time we have available for work assignments. Although it is open to all employees, it is ideal for individuals whose jobs require them to perform a wide variety of tasks. The curriculum emphasizes effective planning. Topics presented include establishing priorities, developing schedules, working efficiently, and dealing with the stress associated with managing multiple responsibilities.

Dynamics of Supervision – MONTGOMERY
March 26 - 27, 2013 at SPD Meeting Room 319

Registration for full day classes: 8:00 a.m. to 8:30 a.m. with classes beginning at 8:30 a.m. and ending at 4:00 p.m.

Course Description: This two-day course provides individuals supervising personnel in state government with a solid understanding of the four management functions – planning, organizing, motivating, and controlling. Although it is open to all supervisors, it is ideally suited for individuals who have been promoted to their first supervisory position. The curriculum emphasizes how the role of a supervisor differs from that of an employee. Topics presented include communicating effectively, making sound decisions, setting performance goals, creating a motivating work environment, promoting a spirit of teamwork, coaching for performance, and resolving interpersonal conflicts.

REGISTRATION PROCESS

Register your employees with The State Personnel Training Division via the email address at RegisterForTraining@personnel.alabama.gov. Registration will be conducted with the agency Personnel Manager or Training Coordinator only. The desired number of spaces or names of employees should be sent to the email address above for registration. Upon request from your agency, availability of classes will be examined and a response will be emailed to the training contact. The training contact must supply all names and the last four digits of the attendees' social security numbers within two weeks of initial confirmation. Substitutions are to be made within your own agency should someone be unable to attend. The new information should be sent to the above email address. If the substitution occurs within two days of training date, the new attendee is to provide registration information day of training.

ADA ACCOMMODATIONS

If an employee needs an accommodation under The Americans with Disabilities Act, please call or email Norma Taylor at least one month in advance of training date. Include the type of accommodation that is necessary and examples of how your department may have provided accommodations in the past.

PARTICIPANT INFORMATION

Information such as location, directions, and parking is listed for the benefit of your attendees. ADDITIONALLY, a "Participant Training Letter" is attached to this email. If you cannot open the attachment, the letter and directions are located at the end of this email. Employee training evaluations from classes in past months indicated that a large number of the attendees did not receive the SPD Participant Letter or information regarding the actual start time and location of training. Since we have classes with varying schedules, please make sure you notify your employees the starting time and location of the specific training program for which they are registered.

PLEASE PROVIDE THE FOLLOWING PAGES TO THE INDIVIDUAL PARTICIPANTS
AFTER THEY HAVE BEEN CONFIRMED WITH SPD

STATE OF ALABAMA PERSONNEL DEPARTMENT TRAINING DIVISION

Dear Participant:

We want to welcome you to State Personnel Department Training 2013! We look forward to seeing you on your scheduled training date. Since you have been registered by your agency Personnel Manager or Training Coordinator, we want to share with you a few tips for the training date.

1. Please bring a sweater or wrap because room temperatures may fluctuate.
2. Unfortunately, state law does not allow the State Personnel Department to furnish food during the training breaks. Vending machines, however, are located near the training room area in each training location. Please bring appropriate change for vending food and drinks.
3. Lunch is on your own and is approximately one hour. There is a cafeteria in the Folsom Administrative Building in Montgomery, Alabama where the State Personnel Department is located. Information regarding the availability of cafeterias and restaurants at other training locations will be available at the training site.
4. Registration starts 30 minutes prior to actual class time. Please arrive in plenty of time to sign-in, receive nametag, and find seating.
5. Please bring writing utensils (pens/pencils) and writing pad. Handouts and manuals will be provided.
6. Participants must be present for the entire scheduled class time to receive certificate and credit for attendance. You cannot leave early or return late from lunch, arrive late due to other meetings, or depart early in the afternoon. Attendance of all class hours is mandatory for certification of class and verification of attendance within SPD records.
7. Cell phones should be turned off or muted.
8. Let your training contact know if you are unable to attend class because substitutes are to be sent in your place. We may have waiting lists for the class in which you are registered. If notified in time, we may be able to fill your vacancy.

If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact us. We can be reached at (334) 242-3389 or by email at RegisterForTraining@personnel.alabama.gov. We look forward to seeing you at training.
